The painting depicts an interior space with classical architectural motifs. At the top, a decorative frieze features two figures flanking columns, followed by a pattern of blue and white scalloped shapes and a lattice design. Below this, a large archway opens up to a courtyard or another room. The archway is supported by columns with blue and gold capitals. In the foreground, a blue bird-like sculpture sits on a pedestal. To the right, a wooden chair is visible. The overall style is reminiscent of classical or neoclassical art.

A photograph of a house gable with a yellow decorative trim and a window, partially obscured by holly leaves and red berries. The gable features a scalloped yellow border along the roofline and a yellow frame around a dark window. The scene is set against a light blue sky with soft clouds. In the foreground, there are holly branches with green leaves and clusters of bright red berries. A white rounded rectangle is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing the text 'Bestellnummer: DIN-04-Giebel'.
